ORAL ORDER: (per the Hon'ble the Chief Justice)

We see no reason in this appeal to interfere with the order passed by the learned single Judge dismissing the appellant's writ petition. Moreover, we do not see that the appellant was required to be heard in the matter in an appeal preferred by respondent No.4 against the order putting her under suspension. Appellant occupied the office of Sarpanch by default because of orders of suspension passed against the respondent No.4.

Appeal dismissed.
